

Protection of Personal Data relating to the Competition for Original Composition 2021

1. Dionysia Trust, of 28, L. Vouliagmenis, 167 77, Hellinikon, Greece is responsible for the processing of personal data that applicants may supply as part of the application process or any other form of communication.
2. Dionysia Trust only processes applicants' necessary personal data and only with their explicit consent. In order for Dionysia Trust to be certain of applicants' consent to such processing, applicants must give their consent in the relevant field of the application (see box at the bottom of this page).

Applicants' personal data is collected and processed by Dionysia Trust with the sole purpose of evaluating their eligibility and the compositions they are submitting as part of their application for the Competition for Original Composition 2021 as well as within any auxiliary documentation required.

Applicants' personal data are not transferred to third parties and can only be accessed by persons specifically authorised by, and bound by non-disclosure agreements with, Dionysia Trust.

Applicants' personal data are deleted by Dionysia Trust upon completion of the Competition, with the exception of the applicants' name and surname, which are kept on file for three (3) years after such time.

Applicants have the right to request:

- Access to their data
- Correction or Deletion of their data
- Processing restrictions
- Transfer of their data
- Objection to the processing, which can take the form of Rescinding their consent to the processing of their personal data. Rescinding consent does not affect processing which may have occurred earlier based on the original consent. Applicants should be aware that in the case of Rescinding consent it will no longer be possible to process and evaluate their application as submitted to Dionysia Trust via the e-mail address info@dionysiatrust.com
- To file a complaint with the Office for the Protection of Personal Data in the event they consider that the processing of their personal data violates existing laws for the protection of personal data.

For matters pertaining to the processing of personal data and the exercising of their rights, applicants may contact Dionysia Trust by telephone on +30 2152157330, by mail at 28 L. Vouliagmenis, Hellinikon, Greece, or by e-mail at info@dionysiatrust.com.

APPLICANT CONSENT TO THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA SUBMITTED

Having read the terms and conditions regarding the application for Dionysia Trust's Competition for Original Composition 2021, I hereby declare that I fully understand their content and that with the processing of my personal data which I may be submitting as part of my application for the Competition and in order for my eligibility to be ascertained. I understand that if I do not provide consent, it is not possible for my application to be processed or evaluated.

I CONSENT

I DO NOT CONSENT

Signature:

Full Name:

Date (DD/MM/YYYY):